WALTON WOOD FARM

THE PLANET LOVES THEM

Every Walton Wood Farm body care product is made in North America with natural ingredients. Supporting domestic suppliers and a low carbon footprint. You get to look (and feel) good without ruining the planet.

ANIMALS LOVE THEM

We hate animal testing. So, we don't do it. Ever. No more choosing between clean skin and a clean conscience.

PEOPLE LOVE THEM

Walton Wood Farm products don't just make your body look its best—they help it be its best by keeping harmful toxins away from your skin. #yourwelcome

Koppers Home®

Walton Wood Farm @ Koppers Home: A Partnership Rooted in Quality and Sustainability

In 2014, Leslie Bradford-Scott founded Walton Wood Farm with a mission to create sustainable, high-quality products that honor both the environment and our heritage. In 2023, Walton Wood Farm joined forces with Koppers Home—a family-owned wholesale company with over 40 years of experience in the home, garden, and giftware industry. This partnership brings Walton Wood Farm’s beloved, North American-made body care line to a broader audience across North America.

As part of the Koppers Home family, Walton Wood Farm is now available alongside other premium brands, providing customers with an expanded selection of top-quality body care products. With orders fulfilled from Koppers Home’s 40,000-square-foot facility, customers can enjoy a streamlined shopping experience, ordering Walton Wood Farm and Koppers Home products together in a single, seamless transaction.

Our Mission

Walton Wood Farm is a North American lifestyle brand that focuses on creating high-quality, natural, and sustainably crafted personal care products, gifts, and home goods. Known for our clever, vintage-inspired packaging and humor-infused product names, we emphasize ingredients that are free from harsh chemicals and are kind to both people and the environment. Walton Wood Farm is committed to sustainable practices, supporting rural economies, and producing cruelty-free items that make thoughtful gifts for various occasions while promoting a message of self-care and humor. Our products range from bath and body care to pet items, all designed with a playful, nostalgic touch.

DID YOU KNOW?

Walton Wood Farm products are thoughtfully crafted to be SLS-free, paraben-free, and phthalate-free, ensuring gentle care for your skin and the environment.

60% of people prefer body wash and shampoo, while 40% stick to traditional bar soap for their bathing routine?

With unique and witty packaging, Walton Wood Farm products make perfect gifts for every occasion, from birthdays to holidays.

Walton Wood Farm's body-care line is proudly made in North America, embodying our commitment to quality and integrity. By choosing locally sourced ingredients and supporting regional manufacturing, we deliver products that meet our high standards while giving back to the local economy.

Our goal is to provide not just products, but solutions that bring joy, comfort, and a touch of wit to everyday routines. At Walton Wood Farm, growth isn't just about adding more products; it's about elevating the experience for our loyal community.

How to order:

Please contact your territory sales representative for assistance. If you're unsure who that is, feel free to call us at 1-844-834-3276 or email us at office@koppershome.com, and we'll be happy to provide their contact information.

You can also place orders on our user-friendly website at www.koppershome.com. If you don't have a login, simply scroll to the bottom of the page and click 'Become a Retail Partner' to gain access. We'll process your request and send you your login details.

On our website, you can check inventory levels, view PO arrival dates, track orders, and monitor any back orders in our system.

Testers are available for selected items. To get 40% off, you must purchase the full-size product when ordering a tester.

General information
